CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge Holding Refuses to Grant Warren and Drew Irvine Bail.

Mrs. Irvine Released on a $5,000 Bond—Grand Jury's Report—An Adjournment Taken Wednesday.

Circuit Court adjourned Wednesday morning, after quite a busy session. Judge Holding succeeded in clearing the docket of a large number of cases, and but a few were carried over to the next term.

The Irvine Cases.

The motion for bail in the cases against Warren and Drew Irvine, indicted for murder in the first degree, and Mrs. Mary W. Irvine, indicted as accessory to the murder, was begun Monday morning, and occupied the whole of Tuesday and a part of Wednesday.

In a motion for bail, where murder in the first degree is the charge, the prosecution is not required to present proof showing positive guilt, but if it is shown to the satisfaction of the court that there is a strong probability of guilt, then the law directs that bail shall not be granted.

About fifty witnesses—most of whom were summoned by the State—were examined Monday and Tuesday, and the argument was begun Tuesday afternoon and closed Wednesday morning. The defendants were represented by Messrs. Figuers & Padgett, Hughes & Son, W. J. Webster and J. C. Voorhies, and the prosecution by Messrs. E. H. Hatcher, J. H. Fussell, W. C. Salmon, W. B. Turner, J. C. Dexter and Attorney-General Boyd.

The following witnesses were placed on the stand: T. D. Shumous, S. B. Nichols, Mrs. S. B. Nichols, E. D. Hunter, W. A. Jamison, John W. Wisener, Buck Flowers, W. H. Beales, R. D. Lockridge, Buck Brown, M. O. Garrett, A. B. Church, Lee Nuby (colored), Marion Flowers, Jeff Newby, Tilden Green, Columbus Chappell and wife, Bob Johnson, Mrs. Fannie Polk, Geo. W. Irvine, Mrs. Docia Irvine, Dr. Bass, John Roundtree, Hardin Thomas, Plummer Webster, Cal Hill, Lewis Hill, Mary Hill, Mandy Roundtree, Allen Daniels, Jim Langston, Mt. Lockridge, Rach Roundtree, Mary Perrell, Annie Rice, James Passmore, Columbus McKissack, Luce Watson, William Murphy, Joe Murphy, Mrs. Willie Shumous, James Passmore, West Watson, Harry Evans, John Yokely, Earl Church.

Wednesday morning Judge Holding gave his decision in the matter, and the following order, allowing Mrs. Irvine bail and refusing bail to her sons, was entered on the minutes of the court.

"This day this cause was heard by and before Hon. Sam. Holding, Judge, etc., upon the motion of defendants made in open court for bail, and the proof introduced and heard by the court, upon consideration of all which the court orders and directs that the defendant, Mary W. Irvine, be granted bail, and the clerk of this court during term time, or the sheriff, after adjournment of court, are authorized to accept bail of defendant Mary W. Irvine, in the sum of $5,000, two good and sufficient sureties conditioned as the law requires, for her personal appearance at the next term of this court, to answer the charge in this cause. The court refuses bail to defendants, Dr. W. C. Bass, and W. T. Irvine, and they will be remanded to jail to await the trial of this cause."

Mrs. Irvine gave bond and was released, and Warren and Drew Irvine were remanded to jail. Mrs. Irvine's bond was signed by the following: H. P. Figuers, L. P. Padgett, J. L. Hutton, S. A. Wilson, J. C. Voorhies, W. T. and Drew Irvine.

This being only a preliminary hearing, as it were, the HERALD does not give the testimony heard in the case.

Suit Compromised.

The case of Mrs. Mary D. Vandervort vs. the Union Central Life Insurance Company, of Cincinnati, O., was compromised Wednesday, by the defendant agreeing to pay complainant $1,125. The complainant was represented in the suit by Messrs. Salmon & Turner, and Messrs. Figuers & Padgett.

Grand Jury Report.

The Grand Jury submitted the following report:

To the Hon. Judge of the Circuit Court of Maury County Tenn.—We, the Grand Jurors of the November term of the Circuit Court of Maury County, Tenn., hereby make the following report:

That we have examined all of the bonds of the county officers and found them in good shape. We also visited the county jail and found it in good condition in every respect. We have also gone through and disposed of all cases on the grand jury docket. We also visited the county asylum and found 22 white inmates and 20 colored, all in as good shape and condition as could be under any management. We also found about 150 barrels of corn, 200 bushels of wheat, hay enough to run the place, pens and beans for the year and molasses and other provision for the quarter, 5 milk cows and calves, farming implements to run place and 20 to 25 acres of good wheat sown for coming crop.

We return thanks in a body to Mr. and Mrs. Harris and Mr. B. S. Thomas for their courtesy and kindness shown us while visiting the asylum.

We also return our thanks to Sheriff Hight and his deputies for their kindness to us and their untiring energies in bringing witnesses before us, and also for their kindness shown us while inspecting the jail; and also to our officer, Mr. T. N. Linn, who thank him for his kindness and efforts to serve us to his best.

Last, but not least, we wish to return our thanks to the Hon. Sam. Holding, Judge of the Court, Attorney-General Frank Boyd, and W. F. Embury, clerk, for their able service rendered us while in court, and we predict that our present Judge, although a young man, will make the best judge the circuit ever had. Signed,

J. H. Kennedy, Foreman; George C. McFall, J. W. Howell, J. W. Sergeant, Press Houser, W. H. Ladd, O. L. Kinzer, T. H. Bryant, G. N. McKennon, D. A. Walton, J. L. Bailey, Luther Parrish, Will Jones, T. N. Linn, officer.

EXPANSION UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

Resolution Introduced in Congress by Senator Vest.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The first note of the anti-expansionists was sounded in the Senate to-day by Senator Vest, of Missouri, who introduced the following joint resolution:

"That under the Constitution of the United States, no power is given to the Federal Government to acquire territory to be held and governed permanently as colonies."

"The colonial system of European nations can not be established under our present Constitution, but all territory acquired by the Government, except such small amount as may be necessary for coaling stations, correction of boundaries and similar governmental purposes, must be acquired and governed with the purpose of ultimately organizing such territory into States suitable for admission into the Union."

The Christmas Horse Review.

The annual holiday number of the Horse Review (Chicago) will be issued Tuesday, Dec. 13, and the publisher promises that it will be equal, if not superior, to any of its predecessors. The able writer "Trotwood" contributes a splendid story, an excellent poem, and an Ole Wash sketch. Murray Howe has written a defense of the use of the Toe Weights, which will interest and instruct every horseman. Joseph Cairns Simpson writes on Early Racing in and about Chicago. "Rio Alto" tells of the Palo Alto broodmares whose combined produce has sold for a million dollars. Late portraits and something new about the living sons of Hambleton 10, of which a scant dozen remain, is a leading contribution. There will be stories and poems and illustrations in plenty, together with an array of horse lore, so that the number will be a library in itself. The supplements will portray the leading road riders of America, the whole will be enclosed within a handsomely colored lithographed cover, and in fact this special number promises to surpass The Horse Review's previous efforts in this direction. Its literary features alone rendering it worth its price to almost any one, regardless of his interest in fine horses. The price, postpaid, is 25 cents per copy, and orders should be sent to THE HORSE REVIEW CO., Chicago, Ill.
